ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY

The University of Minnesota is a public research university that was founded in 1851. The school's oldest and largest campus is both Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota. The materials in this collection all originated on the Twin Cities campus. Additional campuses are in Crookston, Duluth, Rochester, Morris, and Waseca.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

Several different donors provided the materials for this collection. The collection includes samples of University of Minnesota publications from the late 19th century to the late 20th century, including Ariel, the Minnesota Alumni Weekly, Ivory Tower, student published joke books, Minnesota Huddle, and alumni directories, among others. It also contains programs for various University of Minnesota sports and other sports related publications. Some personal papers and newspaper clippings related to Louis Joseph Cooke, athletic director at the University of Minnesota, are included as well. Event programs honoring Maria Sanford, professor at the University of Minnesota and one of the first female professors in the country, and newspaper articles about her also appear in the collection.

The collection is arranged in 5 series with no sub-series. The series includes:

- Series 1: Publications
- Series 2: Athletics
- Series 3: Personal Papers
- Series 4: University Events
- Series 5: Newspaper Clippings

ACCESS

The collection is open for researchers and has no restrictions.

COPYRIGHT

The researcher assumes responsibility for ensuring copyright is followed. When and where possible the archive will provide information related to the copyright owners, but it will be the responsibility of the researcher to ensure copyright laws are followed. Requests for permission to publish material in this collection should be directed to the Archivist.
