ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY

Coffeehouse Extempore was at one time the nation's oldest continuously operated folk music and arts center. The non-profit organization, originally founded in 1964 as a youth drop-in center, was formally titled Young Adult Center, Inc. The Coffeehouse was best known as a music venue for folk artists, attracting professional and semi-professional performers from around the country and world. In addition to the music program, the organization also provided a restaurant and venue for discussion seminars, recreation, film making and photography, arts and crafts, and an outreach program to help students with spiritual concerns. The 1972 annual report explains that Coffeehouse Extempore was modeled after the tradition of English coffeehouses of the 17th and 18th centuries and provided a "continuing program of discussion, dialogue, conversation and seminars aimed at promoting understanding and tolerance in the West Bank community."

Coffeehouse Extempore closed permanently in early fall 1987.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The collection contains administrative materials including background information on the organization, agendas and meeting minutes, funding and grant documentation, and correspondence.

In addition, the collection includes performance and marketing materials such as press releases, posters, and newspaper clippings. It contains promotional materials from many of the artists who performed onsite, including a large collection of cassette tapes. Included is documentation on Coffeehouse Extempore's onsite businesses, such as the Country Store and Juice Bar as well as information related to its relocation and renovation projects.

The collection is arranged in 5 series with no sub-series. The series includes:

- Series 1: Administrative Information
- Series 2: Fundraising & Grants
- Series 3: Finances
- Series 4: Coffeehouse Building & Onsite Businesses
- Series 5: Performers & Events
