ADMINISTRATIVE HISTORY

Little is known about this collection. It may stem from research by the local republican party to keep on top of local politicians. There are notes on certain articles and some correspondence. The rest are articles from publications or campaign materials.

SCOPE & CONTENT

The collection contains newspaper articles, campaign materials and limited correspondence.

The first series is the archivist notes and contains documents related to the collection, future projects, research, and the finding aid.

The second series is 1940-1969 and is the bulk of the collection. This series contains newspaper articles, correspondence, and campaign materials. It has the only folder dedicated to the DFL, but DFL politicians are located throughout the collection. This series depicts an example of the political climate of Minnesota, Hennepin County, and the Twin Cities from 1950-1960s. This finding aid was written in 2021, a tumultuous time for Minneapolis, and collections like these highlight the history that is often forgotten but still present.

The third series is campaign sample materials. This collection has political brochures from Ike to Nixon. This is fascinating because it contains catalogs intended for campaigns to purchase knick-knacks and other items to promote the campaign.

The collection is arranged in three series, with no subseries. The series include:

Series 1: Archivist Notes

Series 2: 1940-1969

Series 3: Sample Campaign Literature

Since this collection contains acidic newspapers, digitization is strongly recommended. Please handle this collection with care.
